The Fabric of Freedom

June 14 is Flag Day in the United States, a day commemorating the adoption of the American flag by the Second Continental Congress in 1777. Known as "Old Glory," "Stars and Stripes," and the "Star-Spangled Banner," the flag has 13 horizontal red and white stripes symbolizing the original 13 colonies. The canton is the rectangle in the upper left corner.

It's blue with 50 white stars representing the 50 states, alternating in numbers of six and five per row. Throughout America's history, there have been 27 flag designs, with the canton stars changing each time a state was added. Before the 48-star flag, canton designs had no official arrangement of stars. Sometimes they were in a circular pattern and other times in a star pattern. Since 1777, one thing hasn't changed: the American flag has always stood for freedom.

Love on a Leash visits us every Tuesday! We are so grateful for our weekly visits from these amazing therapy dogs. They provide emotional support and unconditional love, making every visit extra special.
